The OGA has a three-page resource for merging churches under Constitutional Musings, Note 02. It contains four primary sections. Section one includes suggestions for congregations considering mergers. Section two advises the congregations to develop a plan for union, which includes the new organizational structure, property considerations, and pastoral leadership.

It is our conviction that every Christian should be an active member of a Bible-teaching local church. As believers in Christ, we are members of His body and must discipline ourselves to be actively involved in ministry as a way of life. Here are some specific reasons why you should be a committed ...

Most church leaders are godly and healthy. A toxic church leader, one that is figuratively poisonous to the organization, is rare. But it is that church leader who brings great harm to churches and other Christian organizations. And it is that leader that hurts the entire cause of Christ when word ...

Up through 2 Corinthians 9, Paul has kept a fairly upbeat attitude, especially in 7:11-16 where he described the Corinthians' positive reaction to his "severe letter" and to Titus' visit. But in chapters 10-13, he seems to take the gloves off and lambasts his opponents who are ruining the church ...
