Would you grant hope to a foster child who needs it? Nearly 600,000 American children spend time in the foster care system annually. Of those available for adoption, roughly 117,000, half are "unadoptable" because they are too old, want to be adopted with siblings, or have specific medical/emotional needs.

Hope is an optimistic state of mind that is based on an expectation of positive outcomes with respect to events and circumstances in one's life or the world at large. As a verb, its definitions include: "expect with confidence" and "to cherish a desire with anticipation." Among its opposites are dejection, hopelessness, and despair.
